Come along, boys, come out in the fields, The moon is bright and Nature, boys, kind god-dess that she is, Cares for us all, boys, The locks grow white but the heart keeps green, And blooms like a flower, boys, ff shines right che ri-ly, ho, boys, for the days of yore; Bring atender-ly mother-ly, ho, boys, for the days of yore; Our type of se-re-ni-ty, ho, boys, for the days of yore; Then long the girls and we'll have a merry time, Never mind the dew, but come along merrily, ho, boys, youth flies fast but memo - ries last, Then let us meet to night right brotherly, ho, boys, hand in hand, as in Dix - ie's land, Dance again to-night, boys, meet with ame-ni-ty, ho, boys, for the days of yore. I wish I was in Dix - ie yo, ho, yo,
